To Whom it May Concern:

It is with great pleasure that I recommend Andy Weyrauch and Blake Shippee. I have been involved with them on a number of real estate transactions over the past year throughout which they have displayed a high degree of integrity, responsibility, and ambition. They are unquestionably leaders rather than followers.

Andy and Blake are also very dependable team players. Their good judgment and mature outlook ensure a logical and practical approach to their endeavors. They will be successful in any venture they pursue and I am pleased to give them a positive letter of reference.

Sincerely,

Erik Arntsen
